PLANNING PERMISSION

MANCHESTER CITY COUNCIL

Name and Address of Applicant	Name and Address of Agent
Mr Amar Hussain	Mr Alan Hunter
27 Stamford Road Longsight Manchester M13 0SE	21 Spinney Road Northenden Manchester M23 1AD

Part I – Particulars of Application

Date of Application	Application ref. no.
13 July 2010	093411/FU/2010/S1

Particulars and location of development:

Subdivision of existing retail unit to form retail unit (Class A1) and hot food take-away (Class A5), installation of new shop fronts and erection of flue to side elevation

164 - 166 Parrs Wood Road
Didsbury
Manchester
M20 4RQ

Part II – Particulars of Decision

The Manchester City Council hereby give notice in pursuance of the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 of the following decision

Decision Refused
Date of Decision 6 September 2010

for the carrying out of development referred to in Part 1 hereof in accordance with the application and plans submitted subject to the following conditions:

Part III – Conditions and Reasons

1) The use of the premises as a hot food takeaway would have a detrimental impact on the amenity of the the occupiers of residential properties on Heyscroft Road by reason of the fumes, odours, noise and the general commings and goings associated with such uses. The development is therefore contrary to the provisions of policies H2.2, DC10 and DC26 of the Unitary Development Plan for the City of Manchester.

2) The siting and appearance of the flue will have a visually dominant impact on the street scene of Heyscroft Road and would be detrimental to the visual amenities of the area contrary to policy H2.2 of the Unitary Development Plan for the City of Manchester.

3) The proposed change of use is contrary to City Council Policies DC10.1, DC10.2, DC10.3, and H2.2 as set out in the Unitary Development Plan for the City of Manchester as the location of the proposal is inappropriate in that the property is not located within the City Centre, an industrial or commercial area, a shopping centre or in a local parade of more than 8 units.

Signed.....

Peter Babb, Head of Planning

on behalf of the Council
Town Hall,
Manchester M60 3NY

NOTES

1. Leaflets attached:

2. This permission refers only to that required under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 does not include any consent or approval under any other enactment, byelaw, order or regulation.

3. If the applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission or approval for the proposed development, or to grant permission or approval subject to conditions, he may appeal to the First Secretary of State in accordance with Section 78(1) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 within six months of the date of the notice of the decision.

The Planning Inspectorate have introduced an online appeals service that can be used to make appeals online. This service is available through the Appeals area of the Planning Portal – www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs. The Inspectorate will publish details of your appeal on the internet (on the Appeals area of the Planning Portal).

This may include a copy of the original planning application form and any supporting documents supplied to the local planning authority. By you or your agent, together with the completed appeal form and information you submit to the Planning Inspectorate. Please ensure that you only provide information, including personal information, that you are happy will be made available to others in this way. If you supply personal information belonging to a third party please ensure you have their permission. More detailed information about data protection and privacy matters is available on the Planning Portal.

Alternatively, appeals can be made on a form which is obtainable from Planning Inspectorate, Customer Support Unit, Room 3/15, Eagle Wing, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 or by telephone 0117 372 6372.

The First Secretary of State has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances that excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The First Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, or could not have been so granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them, having regard to the statutory requirements to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. He does not in practice refuse to entertain appeals solely because the decision of the local planning authority was based on a direction given by him.

4. The statutory requirements are those set out in Section 79(6) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, namely Sections 70(1) and 72(1) of the Act.

5. If either the local planning authority of the First Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

6. In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the First Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 114 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
