Why do you consider that a Lawful Development Certificate should be granted for this proposal?

Our proposal is to retain the existing residential use as a dwellinghouse within the permitted development rights of the current owners. The existing dwelling is in single occupation and this is to be retained.
Materials are to be in keeping with the existing, i.e. brickwork to match existing and new roof tiles to match existing concrete interlocking roof tiles.
The new enlargement is offset by less than 4 meters from the original building permitted for detached houses.
The extension is not to exceed 4 meters in height.
The proposal complies with Class A, Schedule 2 of General Permitted Development Order 2015.
