Dear Sir/Madam

Numbering of Properties

The attached notice is served upon you as official notification of the number Flat 1 at 61 which has been allocated to your property.

I would suggest that the attached notice be placed with the title deeds of your property as it may be required for reference in the future. The Post Office has already been notified and other public services will in due course be notified of this new address.

If you have already numbered your premises correctly no further action will, of course, be taken provided the number remains legible and is in a visible position upon your premises. If, however, you have numbered your premises incorrectly please arrange for the official number to be placed upon your premises in accordance with the attached notice.

Yours faithfully

Lisa Shelton

Dear Sir/Madam

Numbering of Properties

The attached notice is served upon you as official notification of the number Flat 5 at 32 which has been allocated to your property.

I would suggest that the attached notice be placed with the title deeds of your property as it may be required for reference in the future. The Post Office has already been notified and other public services will in due course be notified of this new address.

If you have already numbered your premises correctly no further action will, of course, be taken provided the number remains legible and is in a visible position upon your premises. If, however, you have numbered your premises incorrectly please arrange for the official number to be placed upon your premises in accordance with the attached notice.

Yours faithfully

Lisa Shelton
