Richard,

Further to our telephone conversation of this morning, I have now checked through the test data.

The tests have demonstrated compliance with Approved Document E.

Any results not contained within a signed and authorised test report must be considered to be provisional results and may be subject to change.

The formal checking of the report will be undertaken on Monday morning. Should there be any changes in the results outlined above, we will be in contact. However, the caveat above notwithstanding, we would not expect to see any further changes. Our quality system outlines this approach and we must be in compliance with it.

Please let us know if you need any further input.

Regards,

Hi Richard,

Chris forwarded your email regarding the report for the Manchester hotel testing.

The report has been written, and I will aim to check and complete it Monday morning.

I have several commitments this week that are holding me up, so hopefully Monday will be ok?

Regards,
