

Tree and Ecological Implications

Around the periphery of the main site is a low hedge of poor quality as shown in the attached photographs. Pages 2,3 and 4

There are no other trees impacted upon by the development and as the site is currently surfaced and is incorporated into the overall business site there are no ecological issues arising from the development.

