

Assured shorthold tenancy agreement

under part 1 of the Housing Act 1988 as amended under part 3 of the Housing Act 1996

Note: If you need to pay a deposit, we will deal with it under one of the Government-approved schemes.

Date: 10/02/2016

This agreement is between us (the landlord): Robert D'Abreo, c/o East to West Properties Ltd, 123 Barrington Street, Manchester, M11 4FB and you (the tenant or tenants, individually and together):

GRAHAM JACKSON

The rent is: £ 695 every calendar month. You must pay the rent for the month to come. The rent must be paid in advance.

Tick the box to show that you agree to us collecting two rent payments in advance at the start of the tenancy. One is for the first rent period and the other is for the next rent period. You must then make each following payment one calendar month before the start of the rental period to which the payment relates. Paragraph D8 of this agreement will apply.

If there is more than one tenant, each of us agrees to appoint a tenant representative, as set out in paragraph A10. If there is just one tenant, I authorise the tenant to deal with the deposit.

You confirm to us that no-one who is not a tenant has paid towards the deposit.

A We let out the property at:

1 17B SEYMOUR AVENUE, MANCHESTER, M11 4LH

to you (individually and together if there is more than one of you) as well as the furniture, fixtures and household belongings that are on the list that you and we signed. The amount of rent is shown above and both you and we must keep to the terms below.

2 You will have the property and the furniture for 6 MONTHS from 15/02/2016 to 11 am on 14/08/2016. If, at the end of this time, you stay in the property the tenancy will continue as a statutory periodic tenancy. The periods of this tenancy will depend on the periods for which you pay rent. You must give at least one month notice to end it. This notice must end on the last day of a tenancy period.

3 This agreement is an assured shorthold tenancy (as defined in section 19A of the Housing Act 1988). The arrangements in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 for the landlord to repossess the property apply to this agreement. This means that you cannot claim any legal rights to stay on once the tenancy has ended and a court order says you must leave. The landlord giving a section 21 notice must give at least two months' notice, in writing. For more information, you should consult a housing advice centre, solicitor or citizens advice bureau who will tell you what this means.

4 We will let the property to you (individually and together) and only you and _____ will be allowed to live there.

5 No children are allowed to live in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold).

6 No animals are allowed in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold). We can withdraw this permission if we have a good reason.

7 You have to pay a deposit of Nil. You will not receive interest on the deposit unless it is paid into the Government's custodial tenancy deposit scheme. If it is paid into that scheme, you will receive any interest that may be due under the scheme's terms and conditions.

You will get the deposit back when this agreement ends and you leave the property, as long as you have kept to all the agreements and conditions and you have paid all the rent and bills for the property. If you do not do so, we may take from your deposit:

- any rent, or other money you owe us which we have told you about and which is unpaid after the end of the tenancy;
- any unpaid utility bills (electricity, gas, water, phone and internet) or similar sums or council tax for the property for which you are responsible;
- reasonable compensation if you have broken any of your agreements, including those relating to cleaning the property or the furniture or fixtures; or
- the reasonable cost of making good or compensating us for any damage to the property or the furniture or fixtures or anything else for which you may be responsible which is not caused by fair wear and tear.

If we cannot agree any of these amounts, the matter will be decided by the county court unless we can agree on some other way of sorting out the dispute.

8 We will keep the deposit until you have produced satisfactory proof that you have paid for the utility bills (electricity, gas, water, phone and internet) for the property. If you fail to provide proof, we may pay any charges you owe and claim these from you.

9 You cannot use the deposit to pay rent under this agreement.

10 If there is more than one tenant, we have chosen _____ to deal with the deposit on your behalf (jointly and individually) and on behalf of anyone who is not a tenant. That person can be replaced as your representative, by another of the tenants, as long as the majority of you tell us in writing.

11 If you owe rent or any other money you must pay under the agreement, you will have to pay interest on this amount from the date that it should have been paid. The interest rate is 3% above the base rate used by the Royal Bank of Scotland. This rate may apply before, as well as after, a court judgment has been made against you, depending on the terms of the court judgment.

12 We may keep keys to the property. You cannot alter or change or install any locks on any doors or windows in or about the property, or have any additional keys made for any locks without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold), and the cost of providing a set of keys for the landlord to be met by the tenant.

13 We may remove, store, sell or otherwise get rid of any furniture or goods which you refuse or fail to remove from the property at the end of the tenancy. You'll be responsible for all reasonable costs which we may have because of this. We are entitled to take the costs and any money you owe us from any money made from selling the furniture or goods.

14 You must pay our administration fee of £ _____ for entering into this tenancy.

15 If there is shared access to the property, you are entitled to use the entrance, stairways, halls, landings and so on to the property but we may come into the property if we need to get to other parts of the building in which the property is located.

16 That where the property is left unoccupied, without prior notice in writing to us, for a prolonged period, you have failed to pay rent for that period, has shown no intention to return, you are deemed to have surrendered the tenancy. This means we may take over the property and re-let it.

B You must do the following.

1 Pay rent on the days and in the way we have agreed.

2 Pay our reasonable costs for sending reminder letters. These will be £35.00 for each reminder.

3 Pay our reasonable costs for any cheque that does not clear or any unpaid direct debit or debit or credit card or standing order payment. These will be £35.00 each time this happens.

4 Keep the inside of the property in at least as good a condition as it was when the tenancy started (apart from fair wear and tear). Also, at the end of the tenancy you must leave all furniture and fixtures in the rooms or places they were in at the beginning of the tenancy.

5 Repair any damage that you have done deliberately or that was caused by the neglect or carelessness of you or anyone else living in or visiting the property. This includes repairing damage caused in this way to the property and, if it applies, the building in which the property is located and any shared access, replacing any broken glass in windows and repairing or replacing any damaged fittings and installations. If you do not repair the damage you are responsible for, we can claim the reasonable cost of making good this damage or we may give you written notice asking you to repair the damage within a reasonable period of time, depending on the repairs that need to be done. If you fail to do this within the period of notice given, we may then enter the property (after giving you at least 24 hours' notice, in writing) and carry out the work. You will have to pay us for the reasonable cost of this work.

6 Pay for all council tax, electricity, gas, phone and internet bills, water and sewerage charges relating to the property that apply during the tenancy, and pay the total cost of any re-connection fee relating to the supply of electricity, gas, telephone, internet, water if the same is disconnected. You agree to notify us prior to changing supplier for any of the utility services stated above.

7 Take reasonable precautions to prevent frost or similar damage to the property. If the property is going to be empty overnight or for more than 12 hours when the weather is likely to be cold, you must leave enough heating on to prevent the water system freezing, or turn off the water supply at the main stopcock and open all the other water taps and valves in the property to drain the tanks of hot and cold water.

8 Whenever you leave the property unattended, you must lock all the doors and windows and put the burglar alarm on (if there is one). You should tell us if the property is going to be empty for more than seven days in a row.

9 If you give us notice that you are going to leave the property before this agreement has ended, you must pay our reasonable costs for reletting the property and pay the rent until a new tenant moves in. We do not have to take the property or the tenancy back from you early unless we want to do so.

10 Allow us or our agents to come into the property at all reasonable hours of the day to inspect the condition of the property, to carry out repairs or to do other work which we must carry out by law. We will give you at least 24 hours' written notice if we are going to enter the property. You must let us enter the property immediately if there is an emergency.

11 Tell us about any repairs or faults that we are responsible for in the structure or outside of the property, in any installation or in the shared areas.

12 Park vehicles on your parking space only, and without causing an obstruction.

13 Pay the reasonable costs for replacing locks if you fail to return any key.

14 Pay any reasonable cost for getting replacement keys.

15 Allow possible new tenants and buyers to look at the property on at least 24 hours' written notice during the tenancy.

16 Be jointly and individually responsible for paying all the rent you have to pay under this agreement and keep to all the terms of this agreement.

17 Defrost the fridge when necessary. You will be responsible for the reasonable cost of making good any damage that is caused because you have not done this.

18 Be responsible for looking after the garden. You must keep it tidy and cut any grass regularly, but you do not have to improve the garden.

19 Pay our reasonable charges (including our costs) for preparing and checking any inventory or condition schedule at the beginning and end of the tenancy.

20 At the end of the tenancy, leave the property and our fixtures and fittings in as good a condition as at the start of the tenancy (apart from fair wear and tear) and free from rubbish.

21 Pay the reasonable legal and related costs which we have to pay in connection with (i) recovering possession of the property (ii) recovery of unpaid rent or other money payable under this agreement or (iii) steps taken if you fail to comply with the terms of this agreement (including such costs for any attempts by us to do so).

C You must not do the following.

D We agree to do the following.

E If we need to serve any notice on you, including any notice which the law tells us we must give, we will deliver it by hand or send it to you by first-class post to the property address. This means that notices are served on you once they are put through your letterbox, even if you do not receive them because you have moved. If you give us another address to send notices to, any notice served at that address will be valid, if it is posted by first-class post or left at that address.

If you need to serve any notice on us, you must deliver it by hand or sent it by post to the following address:

- you (or any of you) become bankrupt;

- the arrangements for us to repossess the property in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 apply.

G We may repossess the property under Ground 1 in Schedule 2 to the Housing Act 1988 (this applies if we have lived in the property as our only or main home or plan to do so). We may take repossess the property under Ground 2 in the same schedule which allows the lender to repossess it.

We need a court order to repossess the property. You should contact a solicitor, citizens advice bureau or legal advice centre, who will tell you what this means.

In this agreement, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the following meanings:

- "the landlord" includes the persons who during the period of the tenancy have a legal interest in the property
- "the tenant" includes those who might inherit the tenancy. Whenever there is more than one tenant all covenants and obligations can be enforced against all of the tenants jointly and against each individually. Joint and several liability means that any one of the members of a party can be held responsible for the full rent and the other obligations under the agreement if the other members do not fulfil their obligations.
