

Document summary

The purpose of this document is to compare the Luminance values between the digital media panel (D-Poster) and a traditional, poster & paste, billboard, and to provide guidance on setting a D-Poster in line with ILP guidance appropriate to individual environmental zones. The document also provides indicative values for light spread, at night, at different levels of output.

Index

Site Review