Comment Reasons:

Comment: Oh my word what an horrific idea! Manchester is an amazing place with its existing arena which is amazing and close to all amenities. Manchester has a vibrancy and a uniqueness about it because despite the fact that it is a large city, it has its own identity and still has a community spirit around it. To build on Eastlands with another arena will take that all away and will strip it of its own identity. Manchester Arena is iconic and will suffer because of a new arena. Let Manchester Arena stay and not be concerned about some big investors stripping Manchester of its heart...something all Mancunians have in abundance.
