Comment Reasons:

Comment: This arena is the best in the UK. They do so much to keep their customers safe. I attended last year to see Westlife. At first I was a bit sceptical due to the bombing but the staff made us feel safe, screening and searching and only letting people in and out of one entrance being heavily guarded at all times. Staff were so friendly helping to my seat and when I needed to get to the bathroom as I'm on crutches. After everything that has happened this arena deserves an uplift. It will bring a lot more people in to Manchester. I don't see any point in having 2 arenas. It wouldn't be worth the money to build a new arena when you already have a perfectly good arena already there. Why not spend the money on give the men a well deserved facelift.
