Comment Reasons:

Comment: Hi. I am a very frequent user of the entertainment venues in Manchester and regularly attend venues both big and small.

I don't see the need for a second arena site close to the city centre given very good quality venues that are already available including the MEN and the Bridgewater Hall.

In addition smaller venues (academy / Apollo / deaf institute / Albert Hall to name a few) will have lots of pressures already given the economic pressures and to add another venue seems odd at this time when the MEN remains fit for purpose.

Thanks
