Comment Reasons:

Comment: Manchester already has a fantastic arena that we all know and love. It's easily accessible by tram, train and bus. No need to go by car. It supports local restaurants and bars and there's a fabulous selection nearby. Lots of independent traders too not just fast food chains.

There's no need for a second arena. It will be hard to get to from for a lot of us. Building a new arena would ruin the existing one. Manchester arena is the heart of the city and loved by so many.

Why water this down with a second venue?
