Comment Reasons:

Comment: The new arena is too far out of town. The current arena is next to the train station and tram links, brilliant for me when I go to gigs and also in the middle of town. I usually get the tram to Victoria, go to a restaurant to get food, have a couple of drinks, go to the arena and watch a gig and then either jump on the tram or continue my night out in town. If the arena is in eastlands I would drive and not spend any money anywhere else. Actually I probably wouldn't bother going!
