Comment Reasons:

Comment: Manchester arena is the heart of Manchester. It has centralised transport links and hotels for visiting fans. The arena is renowned and has a world class reputation with artists and fans alike. To lose this in the city centre would be a large loss for all. Economically the city may suffer as fans are less likely to eat and drink in the city pre and post concert. Surely it would make business sense to invest in a tried and tested model of Manchester arena.
