Comment Reasons:

Comment: This New venture is totally pointless, particularly as the world has gone crazy with this Virus attacking randomly and depleting the Population. If an organisation has such revenue then the best way forward would be for all concerned to agree to join forces, extend an already established venue which is centrally located. Any funds left over could be put to better use like helping underprivileged and vulnerable Families whose lives could possibly have ruined. The world needs to be less greedy and selfish, considering We are as Humans the top of the evolution scale We treat Our fellow colleagues worse than any other animals that share this planet with Us. So come on get a grip!!!!
