Comment Reasons:

Comment: No need for an arena when we have one a few miles from where you're planning a new one. This will force Manchester arena to become unsuccessful it's a poor place to put an arena out of the way of the city centre In my opinion. Plus Manchester arena has history is already popular and has or had plans to become an even better venue and why more shops!!! F off with the shops!!! Sick of hearing about new shops in a way that's meant to impress us and get us all excited, it doesn't impress me. No to more shops can you not think if anything else for us to spend our money on... No cinema!
