Afternoon Emily,

I have just received the attached from the contractors:

"To thoroughly and carefully clean down to remove masonry paint from stonework using phosphor bronze wire brush and carborundum stone. Stone to be left clean from paint coatings, rinse off during the ground level cleaning using the super-heated water system to remove all superficial soot and dirt deposits and leave in a clean condition".

Hopefully this is sufficient?

Kind regards,
Mark

Mark Murphy
Senior Planner