Part II – Particulars of Decision

The Manchester City Council hereby give notice in pursuance of the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 of the following decision

Decision Refused
Date of Decision 14 December 2009

for the carrying out of development referred to in Part 1 hereof in accordance with the application and plans submitted subject to the following conditions:

Part III – Conditions and Reasons

1) The extension will appear large and bulky, and not subservient to the existing property, by reason of its size and design in relation to the existing dwelling and context, which will have an unacceptable impact upon the character and appearance of the existing house and street scene, and the residential amenities of the occupiers of the neighbouring houses, which is contrary to Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS) for the North West of England Policy DP7; and policies GO1, H2.2, DC1.1, DC1.2 and DC1.3 of the adopted Unitary Development Plan for the City of Manchester.

2) The extension will be situated to the south of 1 Thoralby Close, and will harmfully affect the residential amenities of the occupiers of 1 Thoralby Close, as the orientation, close proximity, and large and bulky size of the extension will cause an oppressive impact, and result in an undue loss of sunlight emanating into 1 Thoralby Close, which is contrary to Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS) for the North West of England Policy DP7; and policies GO1, H2.2, DC1.1, DC1.2 and DC1.3 of the adopted Unitary Development Plan for the City of Manchester.

NOTES

1. This permission refers only to that required under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 does not include any consent or approval under any other enactment, byelaw, order or regulation.

2. Appeals to the Secretary of State
If you are aggrieved by the decision of your local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development or to grant it subject to conditions, then you can appeal to the Secretary of State under section 78 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.

As this is a decision to refuse planning permission for a householder application, if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision then you must do so within 12 weeks of the date of this notice.

Appeals must be made using a form which you can get from the Planning Inspectorate at Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol BS1 6PN or online at www.planningportal.gov.uk/pcs.

The Secretary of State can allow a longer period for giving notice of an appeal, but he will not normally be prepared to use this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal.

The Secretary of State need not consider an appeal if it seems to him that the local planning authority could not have granted planning permission for the proposed development or could not have granted it without the conditions they imposed, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of any development order and to any directions given under a development order.
In practice, the Secretary of State does not refuse to consider appeals solely because the local planning authority based their decision on a direction given by him.

3. The statutory requirements are those set out in Section 79(6) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, namely Sections 70(1) and 72(1) of the Act.

4. If either the local planning authority of the First Secretary of State refuses permission to develop land or grants it subject to conditions, the owner may claim that he can neither put the land to a reasonably beneficial use in its existing state nor render the land capable of a reasonably beneficial use by the carrying out of any development which has been or would be permitted.

In these circumstances, the owner may serve a purchase notice on the Council in whose area the land is situated. This notice will require the Council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VI of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

5. In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused or granted subject to conditions by the First Secretary of State on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in Section 114 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990.
