Design and Access Statement

As this application for Listed Building Consent relates to intrusive surveys to the existing brick viaduct structures, design and access issues are not considered to be relevant. Details of the proposed methodology and mitigation are outlined within the accompanying Supporting Statement document.