Comment Reasons:

Comment: I am writing to wholeheartedly support the planning application by Something More Productive to extend their opening hours and help support their evening offering. Something More Productive has become a cherished hub for our community—a place where neighbours, friends, and families come together. Extending their hours would not only sustain their growth but also help foster a vibrant, safe, and welcoming atmosphere in our area, especially in the evenings.

Supporting this application means investing in the community spirit that makes our neighbourhood such a special place to live.
