Comment: I'm writing as a local resident and future bride to express my full support for the planning permission for MyLahore Marquee, Manchester.

For as long as I can remember, MyLahore Marquee has been the dream wedding venue for me. I've attended so many weddings, engagements & family functions there over the years and each one has left me in complete awe. The atmosphere, the service, the food - everything about it feels so special. Every time I attended a wedding there, I'd tell my family and friends, "When it's my turn, it has to be here."

Now that my own wedding plans are finally starting to take shape, I recently reached out to the marquee to check availability for next summer, only to find out that there's uncertainty surrounding its planning permission and future operations. Honestly, that was heartbreaking to hear. I've waited years for my moment to celebrate there & I can't imagine my wedding anywhere else.

MyLahore Marquee isn't just a venue; it's part of Manchester's cultural identity. It's one of the top three wedding venues in the city, known for its outstanding service, professionalism & exceptional food, which everyone across the community praises so highly. There truly isn't another venue that compares in terms of quality, hospitality & the way they make each event feel personal and unique.

Beyond my own dream, the marquee has had such a positive impact on the wider community, bringing families together, supporting local businesses & suppliers as well as providing an elegant, well managed space where people from all backgrounds can celebrate life's most meaningful moments. It's a venue that reflects the heart of our community & the values we're proud of.

If the marquee were no longer able to operate, it would leave a huge void, not just for couples like me who've been waiting for their chance to celebrate there, but for the countless families and local residents who see it as a place of joy, unity & shared memories.

I sincerely urge the council to please grant MyLahore Marquee its planning permission so that it can continue to serve as a cherished space for the community and for future brides like myself, who have been dreaming of their special day there for years.
