Description

A small 17 square metre platform structure for safe scattering of ashes along the bank of river Mersey in the area of the Northenden Riverside Park close to the M60 motorway bridge. The structure will be a permanent steel/concrete installation for public use. A public footpath runs along the top of the river bank past the site, and this will provide the means of access to the facility. Currently, there is no such facility available in whole of Greater Manchester and there has been a long felt need to have a facility which is inshore within Greater Manchester and has the sanctity and dignity to perform this last rite safely and peacefully. The proposed design creates a walkway and viewing platform at the upper level which is at the same level as the existing public pathway. The upper platform with gated entry is connected to a jetty below via a staircase. The jetty below sits above the median 'normal' water level and extends beyond the bank line allowing safe access to scatter ashes into the Mersey flowing below. Family members who are less mobile will be able to view the ceremony from the viewing platform at the upper level. Detailed topographical survey has been done and submitted to the Corporate Office (land owner) of the Manchester City Council along with the Location Plan and detailed engineering drawings. A Design and Access statement and Flood Risk Assessment have been added to this version of the application.

Description of the Proposal

Please note in regard to:

- Fire Statements - From 1 August 2021, planning applications for buildings of over 18 metres (or 7 stories) tall containing more than one dwelling will require a 'Fire Statement' for the application to be considered valid. There are some exemptions. View government planning guidance on fire statements or access the fire statement template and guidance.
- Permission In Principle - If you are applying for Technical Details Consent on a site that has been granted Permission In Principle, please include the relevant details in the description below.

Description

Please describe details of the proposed development or works including any change of use

It is proposed to build a small (about 18 square meters) jetty structure that will overhang over the river bank linking to a footpath onshore. Design has been done after the exact location was finalised after detailed topological survey and discussions with the senior surveyor from the Corporate Office of the Manchester City Council (the land owner). We are expecting groups of 5 to 10 people to use the facility on average two to three times per week. The decking area will be about 3m x 3m. Both the decking and the safety railings will be of composite material. The decking will be supported by structural steel beams. The steel beams will be supported by concrete plinths on land and steel piles if required. The structure will not be visually intrusive. Aim is to provide a safe facility for people to scatter ashes of their loved ones at a facility that has the sanctity and dignity to perform this last rite safely and peacefully.

Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 \(as amended\)) would apply?

- ☐ Yes
- ☒ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

You can use our partner's free online tool to determine if you are exempt and to produce detailed reasons

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:

Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:

Under 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:

It is under 25 square metres. Also, the application was first made before 2 April 2024 and thus is exempt from the general Biodiversity Gain Condition as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) by virtue of Regulation 3 of the Biodiversity Gain Requirements (Exemptions) Regulations 2024

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.
