Comment Reasons:

Comment: I think one of your resident blocks needs to be turned into multi storey car park. That would be sensible for all residents living there to have a car parking space as well as visitors to chorlton. you have said 12 visitor car parking spaces. Shouldn't this be around 60 as old car park that was there that was busy at weekends had about 80 car parking spaces. Or approach morrison's about building multi storey car park there. I am in support for more housing yes these plans seem to be putting profits over sensible planning?
