

The shopfront sign will be made of brushed stainless steel, which is weather-resistant and suitable for long-term outdoor use.

The installation will be carried out using standard screws, securely fixing the sign to the wall without any structural alterations to the building.

The sign weighs approximately 10 kilograms (around 20 pounds) and will be safely mounted according to standard installation procedures.