Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: A really grotesque piece of architecture. The closure of the precinct ripped the heart out of Chorlton, and this is an extremely poor replacement, more to do with raising revenue from property sales than benefitting the area, Affordable Housing? Where? An utter eyesore that should never have been considered. Something I will likely have to view every day as I live opposite it. A disgrace and an insult to the intelligence, as well as the needs, of the local community.
