Comment Reasons:

Comment: I strongly object to the proposed demolition of any part of the Hollaway Wall, a distinctive and historically significant feature of the former UMIST campus. The wall is an important piece of public art and post-war architectural heritage, which forms an essential part of the campus's original design vision.

As a listed structure, the Hollaway Wall is legally protected due to its special architectural and historic interest. Any proposal to alter or demolish part of it must meet a high threshold of justification, which I do not believe this application satisfies. Damaging or removing sections of the wall would compromise both its artistic integrity and the heritage value for which it was listed.
