Stance: Customer made comments neither objecting to or supporting the Planning Application

Comment Reasons:

Comment: It is good to see new housing and concern (although note commercial on ground floor) is the loss of the centre, in the sense of a community. It is difficult to see the positives given the state Chorlton had been left in for over 18 months, with a very poor centre, no shops of any interest for younger spenders, such as the craft shop, boots etc. of the essence of the centre is 4 high rises I would object

I do not object to housing but objective to the loss of a community centre

Not massively keen on the high rise design. They look awful based on the drawings
