Comment Reasons:

Comment: As a life long resident I am appalled to read about this change of plans to the site. Chorlton is a suburb - the blocks will be vastly out of place and dwarf the central landscape. One would be bad enough but 6 is horrific. Chorlton is a place for families and young professionals. Blocks of flats like this are not what's needed and as mentioned previously, there is no infrastructure to support more people like this. Lack of parking, increased refuse. No other suburb is attempting to build something as dominating right in the centre. It's not what was in the original plans and the residents have been lied to
