Notes:

This drawing indicates in orange the primary elements to be removed to facilitate the execution of the new works - refer to separate drawings. The proposed drawings should be referred to to determine if further removals are required above which are shown on these drawings. Refer also the the requirements of the proposed structural engineer's information and drawings. The structure shown is indicative only. The actual structure can only be fully determined once the existing coverings are removed. Roof coverings and sundry items such as walkways, ladders and handrails will be removed under a separate work package. Remove all ceilings attached to roof timbers being taken out.
