Stance: Customer objects to the Planning Application
Comment Reasons:
Comment:As a Chorlton resident for fifty years, I strongly object to the latest plans for the redevelopment of Chorlton centre.
The proposed heights of the apartment blocks are totally out of scale for a 'village' centre.
The opportunity to supply an attractive public space is missed .
The side profiles of the development are unattractive and out of scale. The amount of space offered for retail development is inadequate.
It would be a real shame to allow this overdevelopment to spoil the well loved village of Chorlton.
