Hi Holly,

In reference to our call yesterday - they've now posted that they will be open until 1am tonight (please see attached a screenshot of their Instagram stories, posted 5hrs ago)
Please can I ask what action can be taken? As you stated on our call, the application is still underway and I'm very confused why these hours are now going ahead,

Best Wishes,

To whom it may concern,

We received a planning application for new opening hours for the cafe on our road which includes late night openings Thursday - Sunday. I've been told that this application is being considered until the 5th January.

The cafe is already advertising late night openings, please see attached a screenshot of before and after of their Instagram.

I feel really disheartened that the planning application (still under review) is basically being ignored.

Please could this be looked into. [REDACTED]

Best Wishes,
