Comment Reasons:

Comment: This business is exactly what Withington needs, for years we've been lacking in nice, locally-run, bars and cafes. Having a place that people can grab some good grub, a nice hot drink, whilst either meeting friends or remote working is fitting for the vibrant student and young adult population in the area.

Everything done at Something More Productive, is considered and well-meaning. The intention for creating a homely, welcoming space that caters to to the many, whilst offering tailored events during the evening is the mature and simple business that Withington community so desperately needs to take care of.
