Comment Reasons:

Comment: There is currently a lot of problems with traffic around Kingsway carpets (Vans parking up) also delivery vans to Booth and Howarths. This development will make it far worse.

There is legislation going back to when the cricket club was set up for this land to be used solely for the community and to be an open space. We are losing all our community areas. There is already plans to build opposite this land, which in itself will cause traffic chaos. It will be disastrous to have both developments
