Comment Reasons:

Comment: I used to live just round the corner from 9 Egerton Crescent, when it was Wilderness Records before that shut down - Something More Productive is the perfect venue for the area, it offers a real sense of community, is run by a really friendly team, and there's a beautiful mix of all demographics in there at all times. It's essential that we protect and support venues like Something More Productive, both in its capacity as a cafe and a bar with music - when the UK lost a grassroots music venue every fortnight and 39 pubs every month in 2024 according to reports, supporting independent venues that offer a range of services, from coffees and pastries to pizza and wine with live music, is crucial - I believe it would be a serious error for the council to curtail Something More Productive's offerings.
