Comment Reasons:

Comment:I wish to pledge my support for the planning permission application submitted by Something More Productive. This venue has consistently supported its neighbours, created space for community use, and allowed for its premises to be used for community events. The team at this venue is wholeheartedly committed to building a safe and friendly community. They are active, helpful members of the local community and great supporters of other local businesses. I live in a neighbouring suburb, but frequently visit and spend time in Withington - across a range of venues - because of places like Something More Productive. This team supports the local economy and provides jobs for locals. Most importantly, it's part of Withington's highly esteemed high street renaissance which has been reported on by the likes of the BBC. This is something the community, and the wider city, is proud of. It should be encouraged rather than challenged.
