Comment Reasons:

Comment:I think that housing is a great initiative, there is a shortage of housing and this would be a good use of space. People have been talking about it being used for the local youths or sport as it was many many years ago but this will rely on funds and extra policing and there are several green spaces near the area which can be used for recreation however land is in short supply. I fully support using this as housing. I love the idea of a blend of homes suitable for different ages I.e families, couples and the elderly.
