Comment Reasons:

Comment: Something More Productive have been a fantastic addition to the area. The friendly atmosphere really brings people together and helps cultivate a sense of community, and the quality of what they serve is outstanding. It's great to see a small independent locally run business like this doing well, especially in the current climate, and the extension of opening hours will help them to stay open. Independent establishments like this are one of the biggest reasons many people come to the area and the council should be doing everything it can to support them. It would be really sad to see a business like this be forced to close, and the result would at best be another chain taking it's place, at worst an empty building, neither of which would do anything to help the community.
