Comment Reasons:

Comment:I wish to express my support for this planning application. Something More Productive is a gem in the heart of Withington and has become a welcoming hub for the community. Their events such as Jazz Nights are showcasing local musical talent, they are providing barista training to upskill local residents, and their cafe is generally a friendly refuge for many local people.

The owners and staff display the utmost respect for the local residents and environment and demonstrate great care in every decision they make, taking time to discuss options with local stakeholders.

Approval of this planning application is sure to secure the continuation of successful and sustainable business in Withington, and have a positive effect on nearby local businesses too.
