Description of Existing Use, Building Works or Activity

Please fully describe each existing use, building works or activity for which you want the lawful development certificate. Where appropriate, show to which part of the land each use, building works or activity relates

The property is being used as HMO.

Grounds for application for a Lawful Development Certificate

Under what grounds is the certificate being sought

- [ ] The use began more than 10 years before the date of this application
- [ ] The use, building works or activity in breach of condition began more than 10 years before the date of this application
- [ ] The use began within the last 10 years, as a result of a change of use not requiring planning permission, and there has not been a change of use requiring planning permission in the last 10 years
- [ ] The building works (for instance, building or engineering works) were substantially completed more than four years before the date of this application.
- [ ] The use as a single dwelling house began more than four years before the date of this application
- [x] Other - please specify (this might include claims that the change of use or building work was not development, or that it benefited from planning permission granted under the Act or by the General Permitted Development Order).

If the certificate is sought on 'Other' grounds please give details

As the property has been used Four continuous years, the owner can apply for a Lawful Development Certificate (LDC) from the local planning authority (LPA).
Under Section 171B of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990, an unauthorised change of use to an HMO (C4) can become lawful if the use has continued for at least four years without enforcement action.

Is the certificate being sought for a use, operation, or activity in breach of a condition or limitation?

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No
