Good morning John.

We object to the work in the specified application.
As the work specified, would remove more than 30% of the leaf mass – and would result in a lot of reactive growth (creating a dense shade.)
This would be counter-productive, as they are doing the work for more sunlight.

We would suggest a more sympathetic crown lift to 5m, following BS3998:Tree Work.

Thanks and best regards,

Ben Alexander
