Comment Reasons:

Comment: Green areas constantly being taken up by houses, leave us one for dogs and children and just tidy up the shrubbery! I object whole heartedly to this planning permission. The bend on the road is dangerous enough as it is due to people parking there from the hospital and the flats. There will not be enough room to drive around once ppl move in and start parking outside the houses as well. The bend as well is dangerous for speeding and the whole road needs speed bumps! Also, more houses means more rent raises which have been ludicrous over the last few years jumping 19% in one year! This has to stop. Wythenshawe was supposed to be full of green areas hence the garden city name! Now it's just becoming another concrete jungle!
