Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The proposed development comprises two key additions to the existing property to enhance its functionality and usability.

Firstly, a front extension is proposed to create a new enclosed porch. This addition will improve the entry experience by providing a defined and more spacious entrance to the house. The design ensures that entry is no longer directly into the staircase, offering a more practical and welcoming approach to the property. The additional space will also accommodate storage for items such as coats and shoes, improving the functionality of the entrance area.

Secondly, the proposal includes the conversion of the existing loft to provide an additional bedroom through the construction of a dormer to the rear of the property. The existing roof ridge is to be slightly raised to allow for sufficient headroom. The dormer is designed to maximise the usable floor space in the loft, creating a comfortable and well-lit bedroom. The dormer will be sympathetically designed to complement the character of the existing building while adhering to local planning and building regulations.

These additions have been carefully considered to meet the client's needs while maintaining harmony with the character of the surrounding area and the existing property, ensuring the proposals are both functional and appropriate for their context.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☑ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No
