Reasons for comment:
Comments:	I am a pensioner in my late 70s and concerned over a few points as my property is attached to the said property. How long is the work going to take , as I have trouble sleeping and suffer with anxiety and fibromyalgia flare ups when stressed . Also the dust , building over looking our privacy . I'm also concerned to who will be inhabiting the property as over the past 18 months there has been lots of different coming and going of different people . Also there's problems with parking on the street so when work men and building materials etc are going to contribute to more issues. Noise disruption as my daughter and grandson live with me and can work unsociable hours so their sleep being disturbed. So my concerns are noise time scales and to be put at ease as to who will be living there or what the property would be used for as I've lived here for 42 years plus .

Kind regards
