Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

PROPOSAL: Retention of single storey side and rear extension, and single storey rear conservatory.

The property is a semi-detached property with an existing rear extension. The applicant is applying for a retrospective approval on a non-permanent rear conservatory which is predominantly transparent and 2.5m from ground to eave level, including the retention of single storey side and rear extension. See pictures of the conservatory in the appendix.

IMPACT

Based on the planning policies as well as those that govern permitted development outlined above in the REGULATIONS CONCERNING REAR EXTENSIONS section, there is little to no impact of the proposed extension the existing property or on neighbouring residential amenity e.g.

- 1) Loss of daylight; The conservatory has been constructed with glass all round to allow light to go through.
- 2) Overlooking; There are no overlooking concerns. This is a ground floor conservatory with is 6.1m garden space in front of it, and the same distance to the rear boundary wall. The rear, and side boundary walls are 2m high.
- 3) Overshadowing: there is no overshadowing as the conservatory height, ground to eave level is less than 2.5m. Furthermore, there is a 2m boundary fence between neighbouring properties on both sides of the garden. In addition, the material is used to is glass windows which allows lighting to go through.

Biodiversity net gain

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'biodiversity gain condition' requiring development to achieve a net gain of 10% of biodiversity value.

This is subject to exemptions, an exemption applies in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order (2015)*.

Applicants for planning permission are required to make a statement as to whether they believe the biodiversity gain condition will apply if permission is granted, please confirm:

☒ It is my belief that if permission is granted for the development to which this application relates the biodiversity gain condition would not apply

*A 'householder application' means an application for planning permission for development for an existing dwellinghouse, or development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse which is not an application for change of use or an application to change the number of dwellings in a building.

Pre-application Advice

Has assistance or prior advice been sought from the local authority about this application?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

* "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

 "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
