Description of Proposed Works

Please describe the proposed works

The purpose of this project is to design and build two additional bedrooms along with a bathroom linked to the existing bungalow.

Has the work already been started without consent?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Materials

Does the proposed development require any materials to be used externally?

⊘ Yes
◯ No

Please provide a description of existing and proposed materials and finishes to be used externally (including type, colour and name for each material)

Type:
Walls

Existing materials and finishes:
The existing bungalow is constructed with cavity walls. The external face of the cavity walls features exposed brick walls, contributing to the current aesthetic of the property.

Proposed materials and finishes:
The extension will feature cavity wall. The use of compliant thermal insulation is integral to the overall design. It not only meets regulatory standards but also ensures that the extension is energy-efficient, supporting sustainability goals and reducing long-term energy costs. The choice of a white rendered façade is influenced by the desire to maintain visual harmony with adjacent properties, creating a consistent and pleasing aesthetic along the main road.

Type:
Roof

Existing materials and finishes:
The main portion of the existing bungalow is characterized by a pitched tiled roof. Another section of the bungalow features a flat roof constructed with single-ply roofing material.

Proposed materials and finishes:
The extension roof will be flat roof constructed with single-ply roofing material.

Type:
Windows

Existing materials and finishes:
Existing windows are PVC double glazing windows.

Proposed materials and finishes:
Proposed windows will be PVC double/triple glazing windows.

Type:
Doors

Existing materials and finishes:
External doors are PVC thermally insulated doors and PVC double glazed doors.

Proposed materials and finishes:
External door will be a PVC double glazed door.

Are you supplying additional information on submitted plans, drawings or a design and access statement?

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

If Yes, please state references for the plans, drawings and/or design and access statement

Biodiversity net gain

Householder developments are currently exempt from biodiversity net gain requirements.

However, this exemption still needs to be confirmed by the applicant or agent when making a householder planning permission application.

☑ I/we confirm that the proposed development, if granted permission, would be exempt from the general biodiversity gain condition.

Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

However, the 'general biodiversity gain condition' does not apply in relation to planning permission for a development which is the subject of a householder application, within the meaning of Article 2(1) of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended).

Site Visit

Can the site be seen from a public road, public footpath, bridleway or other public land?

⊘ Yes
◯ No

If the planning authority needs to make an appointment to carry out a site visit, whom should they contact?

◯ The agent
⊘ The applicant
◯ Other person

The City Council may consider a small addition to the side or rear of the existing property or an increase in the size of the existing dormer.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Ownership Certificates and Agricultural Land Declaration

Certificates under Article 14 - Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015 (as amended)

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

Is any of the land to which the application relates part of an Agricultural Holding?

- [ ] Yes
- [x] No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/ the applicant was the owner* of any part of the land or building to which the application relates, and that none of the land to which the application relates is, or is part of, an agricultural holding

 "owner" is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run.

* "agricultural holding" has the meaning given by reference to the definition of "agricultural tenant" in section 65(8) of the Act.

NOTE: You should sign Certificate B, C or D, as appropriate, if you are the sole owner of the land or building to which the application relates but the land is, or is part of, an agricultural holding.
