Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) sets out that every planning permission granted for the development of land in England shall be deemed to have been granted subject to the 'general biodiversity gain condition'.

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

Amendments Summary

After discussions with Harriet Aidoo (Assistant Planning Officer) we have made the new extension to flow as one complete home, creating access from the original dwellings at both the ground and first floor levels. The existing garage is to be demolished and the new extension is to be set back from the original dwellings to ensure there is sufficient parking to the front of the property.
