Assured shorthold tenancy agreement

under part 1 of the Housing Act 1988
as amended under part 3 of the Housing Act 1996

If you need to pay a deposit, we will deal with it under one of the Government-approved schemes as specified in this Agreement, we must also give you prescribed information relating to the deposit.

Date: [a] 7th December 2015

This agreement is between us:

[b] Gary Rafferty & Ruth Peck

the landlord or landlords and you (individually and together):

[c] Daniel Jack Anderson, Ronan Liam Pike-Burke, Joshua Oluwaseun Uzo Amaka Akah,

the tenant or tenants

The rent is: [d] £ 1,495.00

(Please tick appropriate box)

every: calendar month [e] ✓

4 weeks [f]

2 weeks [g]

1 week [h]

You must pay the rent for the month, weeks or week to come (whichever applies).

The rent must be paid in advance. The first rental payment is for the rental period beginning on the start date specified in A2. After that rent is to be paid on the first day of every rent period which follows while the tenancy lasts.

If someone is not a tenant has paid towards the deposit, please tick this box and fill in the boxes below [i]

If someone who is not a tenant has paid towards the deposit give the following details:

Names of people paying towards the deposit	Amounts paid
[j]	[k]

If there is more than one tenant, I/we signing below agree to appoint a tenant representative, as set out in paragraph A12. If there is just one tenant, I/we authorise the tenant to deal with the deposit.

Signature [l]

Signature [m]

If we cannot agree any of these amounts, the matter will be decided by the county court unless we can agree on some other way of sorting out the dispute.

10 We will keep the deposit until you have produced satisfactory proof that you have paid for the utility bills (electricity, gas, water and phone) for the property. If you fail to provide proof, we may pay any charges you owe and claim these from you.

11 You cannot use the deposit to pay rent under this agreement.

12 If there is more than one tenant, [v Daniel Jack Anderson] is chosen to deal with the deposit on your behalf (jointly and individually) and on behalf of anyone who is not a tenant. That person can be replaced as your representative, by another of the tenants, as long as the majority of you tell us in writing.

13 If you owe rent or any other money you must pay under the agreement, you will have to pay interest on this amount from the date that it should have been paid. The interest rate is 3% above the base rate used by the Royal Bank of Scotland. This rate may apply before, as well as after, a court judgment has been made against you, depending on the terms of the court judgment.

14 We may keep keys to the property.

15 We may remove, store, sell or otherwise get rid of any furniture or goods which you refuse to remove or fail to remove from the property at the end of the tenancy. You will be responsible for all reasonable costs which we may have because of this. We are entitled to take the costs and any money you owe us from any money made from selling the furniture or goods.

16 You must pay our administration fee of [w £ nil] for entering into this tenancy. (If none is due insert "nil")

17 If there is shared access to the property, you are entitled to use the entrance, stairways, halls, landings and so on to the property but we may come into the property if we need to get to other parts of the building in which the property is located

B You must do the following.

1 Pay rent on the days and in the way we have agreed.

2 Pay our reasonable costs for sending reminder letters. These will be [x £ 25] for each reminder.

3 Pay our reasonable costs for any cheque that does not clear or any unpaid direct debit or debit- or credit-card or standing-order payment. These will be [y £ 25] each time this happens.

4 Keep the inside of the property in at least as good a condition as it was when the tenancy started (apart from fair wear and tear). Also, at the end of the tenancy you must leave all furniture and fixtures in the rooms or places they were in at the beginning of the tenancy.

5 Repair any damage that you have done deliberately or that was caused by the neglect or carelessness of you or anyone else living in or visiting the property. This includes repairing damage caused in this way to the property and, if it applies, the building in which the property is located and any shared access, replacing any broken glass in windows and repairing or replacing any damaged fittings and installations. If you do not repair the damage you are responsible for, we can claim the reasonable cost of making good this damage or we may give you written notice asking you to repair the damage within a reasonable period of time, depending on the repairs that need to be done. If you fail to do this within the period of notice given, we may then enter the property (after giving you at least 24 hours' notice, in writing) and carry out the work. You will have to pay us for the reasonable cost of this work.

6 Pay for all electricity, gas and phone, water and council tax bills relating to the property that apply during the tenancy.

7 Take reasonable precautions to prevent frost or similar damage to the property. If the property is going to be empty overnight or for more than 12 hours when the weather is likely to be cold, you must leave enough heating on to prevent the water system freezing, or turn off the water supply at the main stopcock and open all the other water taps and valves in the property to drain the tanks of hot and cold water.

8 Whenever you leave the property unattended, you must lock all the doors and windows and put the burglar alarm on (if there is one). You should tell us if the property is going to be empty for more than seven days in a row.

9 If you give us notice that you are going to leave the property before this agreement has ended, you must pay our reasonable costs for re-letting the property and pay the rent until a new tenant moves in. We do not have to take the property or the tenancy back from you early unless we want to do so.

10 Allow us or our agents to come into the property at all reasonable hours of the day to inspect the condition of the property, to carry out repairs or to do other work which we must carry out by law. We will give you at least 24 hours' written notice if we are going to enter the property. You must let us enter the property immediately if there is an emergency.

Except as shown in the boxes above, you confirm to us that no-one who is not a tenant has paid towards the deposit.

A We let out the property at:

1 [n] 124 (Flat 2) Platt Lane, Manchester, M14 5NN to you (individually and together if there is more than one of you) as well as the furniture, fixtures and household belongings that are on the list that you and we signed. The amount of rent is shown on the previous page and both you and we must keep to the terms below.

2 You will have the property and the furniture for [o] 12 Months starting on [p] 1st July 2016 to [q] 30th June 2017

If, at the end of this time, you stay in the property the tenancy will continue as a statutory periodic tenancy. The periods of this tenancy will depend on the periods for which you pay rent. You must give at least four weeks' (or a month if you pay rent monthly) notice to end it. This notice must end on the last day of a tenancy period.

3 This agreement is an assured shorthold tenancy (as defined in section 19A of the Housing Act 1988). The no fault arrangements in section 21 of the Housing Act 1988 for the landlord to repossess the property apply to this agreement. This means that you cannot claim any legal rights to stay on once the tenancy has ended and a court order says you must leave. The landlord giving a section 21 notice must give at least two months' notice, in writing. For more information, you should consult a housing advice centre, solicitor or Citizens Advice Bureau who will tell you what this means.

4 We will let the property to you (individually and together) and only you and will be allowed to live there.

5 No children are allowed to live in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold).

6 No animals are allowed in the property without our permission, in writing (which we will not unreasonably withhold). We can withdraw this permission if we have a good reason.

7 You have to pay a deposit of [s] £ 1,200 (If none is due insert "nil"). The Deposit will be held by [t] Gary Rafferty & Ruth Peck It will be protected by a Government approved Tenancy Deposit Scheme, namely [u] MyDeposits

We can transfer the deposit to another Government approved Tenancy Deposit Scheme or change the person who holds the deposit (unless it has been paid into a Government approved custodial Tenancy Deposit Scheme) but, in either case, we will notify you of this change in writing.

8 You will not receive interest on the deposit unless it is paid into the Government's custodial tenancy deposit scheme. If it is paid into that scheme, you will receive any interest that may be due under the scheme's terms and conditions.

9. You will get the deposit back when this agreement ends and you leave the property, as long as you have kept to all the agreements and conditions and you have paid all the rent and bills for the property. If you do not do so, we may take from your deposit:

- any rent, or other money you owe us which we have told you about and which is unpaid after the end of the tenancy;
- any unpaid utility bills (electricity, gas, water, phone) or similar sums or council tax for the property for which you are responsible;
- reasonable compensation if you have broken any of your agreements, including those relating to cleaning the property or the furniture or fixtures; or
- the reasonable cost of making good or compensating us for any damage to the property or the furniture or fixtures or anything else for which you may be responsible which is not caused by fair wear and tear. This does not include any damage covered by our insurance policy (except for any insurance excess) or any damage resulting from our failure to carry out any repairs for which we are responsible. We will make allowance for the age and condition of any item as at the start of the tenancy.

19 Pay our reasonable charges (including our costs) for preparing and checking any inventory or condition schedule at the beginning and end of the tenancy.
20 At the end of the tenancy, leave the property and our fixtures and fittings in as good a condition as at the start of the tenancy (apart from fair wear and tear) and free from rubbish.
21 Pay the reasonable legal and related costs which we have to pay in connection with (i) recovering possession of the property (ii) recovery of unpaid rent or other money payable under this agreement or (iii) steps taken if you fail to comply with the terms of this agreement (including such costs for any attempts by us to do so).

11 Display any permanent notice on the property.
12 Use the property as anything other than a private home but (so long as this is not prohibited by the terms of any lease under which we own the property) this does not prevent you working at home so long as you are not using the property to run a business and your home working is purely incidental to the use of the property as your private home
13 Block, or allow guests to block, any of the shared areas, if this applies.
14 Dry washing inside the property, except in a ventilated room suitable for such purposes.
