Dear Julie Curtis - Emerson,

I am writing further to your previous email and contents of the attached correspondence in regard to the above development.

I can advise you that the layout has been further revised in relation to the end of Ferris Street following the matters which have been raised .

The full drawing can be viewed on the public access pages of the MCC web site planning pages relating to the above planning application.

Please contact me further if you need any further information.

Kind regards,
Sue Wills
