Comment Reasons:

Comment: I was very pleased to see that this lot will be converted to residences finally. The current state is an eyesore and Manchester, as all UK cities, desperately needs more housing to ensure that there is ample supply to meet demand, which will lower prices.

The additional use for food and drink or drinking establishments is also excellent, as the existing towers next door, with shops and drinking establishments are excellent places to spend leisure time. A commitment to adding cycle parking is also an excellent part of this proposal.
