Good afternoon Ralph,

We would not be able to agree a further extension on this application. I'm afraid we cannot keep extending simply because we have not received the required information, and I think to be fair, we've been plenty generous so far in granting the extensions on these ones.

I would advise to confirm whether you would like withdraw the application and re-submit when you have the required information, or else we will have to issue a refusal due to lack of information provided.

Kind Regards

Hi Jack,

I have just picked up your voicemail. We had an initial response back from the ventilation contractor however I have asked for further information which more comprehensively responds to the comments from EH. Please can we agree a further extension to 29th March 2023, which will give enough time for this to be dealt with. Many thanks in advance

Kind regards

Ralph

Hi Jack,

Thanks for your email. We have not responded yet but I have chased the applicant / kitchen contractor on this. Please can we agree an extension to 10th March which will hopefully be sufficient for us to respond and then for the Council to review. Thanks

Kind regards

Ralph

Good afternoon Ralph,

This application has been passed to myself following my colleague Eve leaving the Council last week.

I can see the last communication between yourself and Eve from the 30/01/2023 asking for an extension of time on this application. No emails have been forwarded to myself since from the person overseeing Eve's email, so just double checking to see if you have sent anything further over in regards to this one.

Kind Regards
