

space between planters provided with timber gate
for means of escape purposes only

Free-standing mobile timber planter units

space between planters provided with timber gate
for means of escape purposes only

15700

proposed side elevation

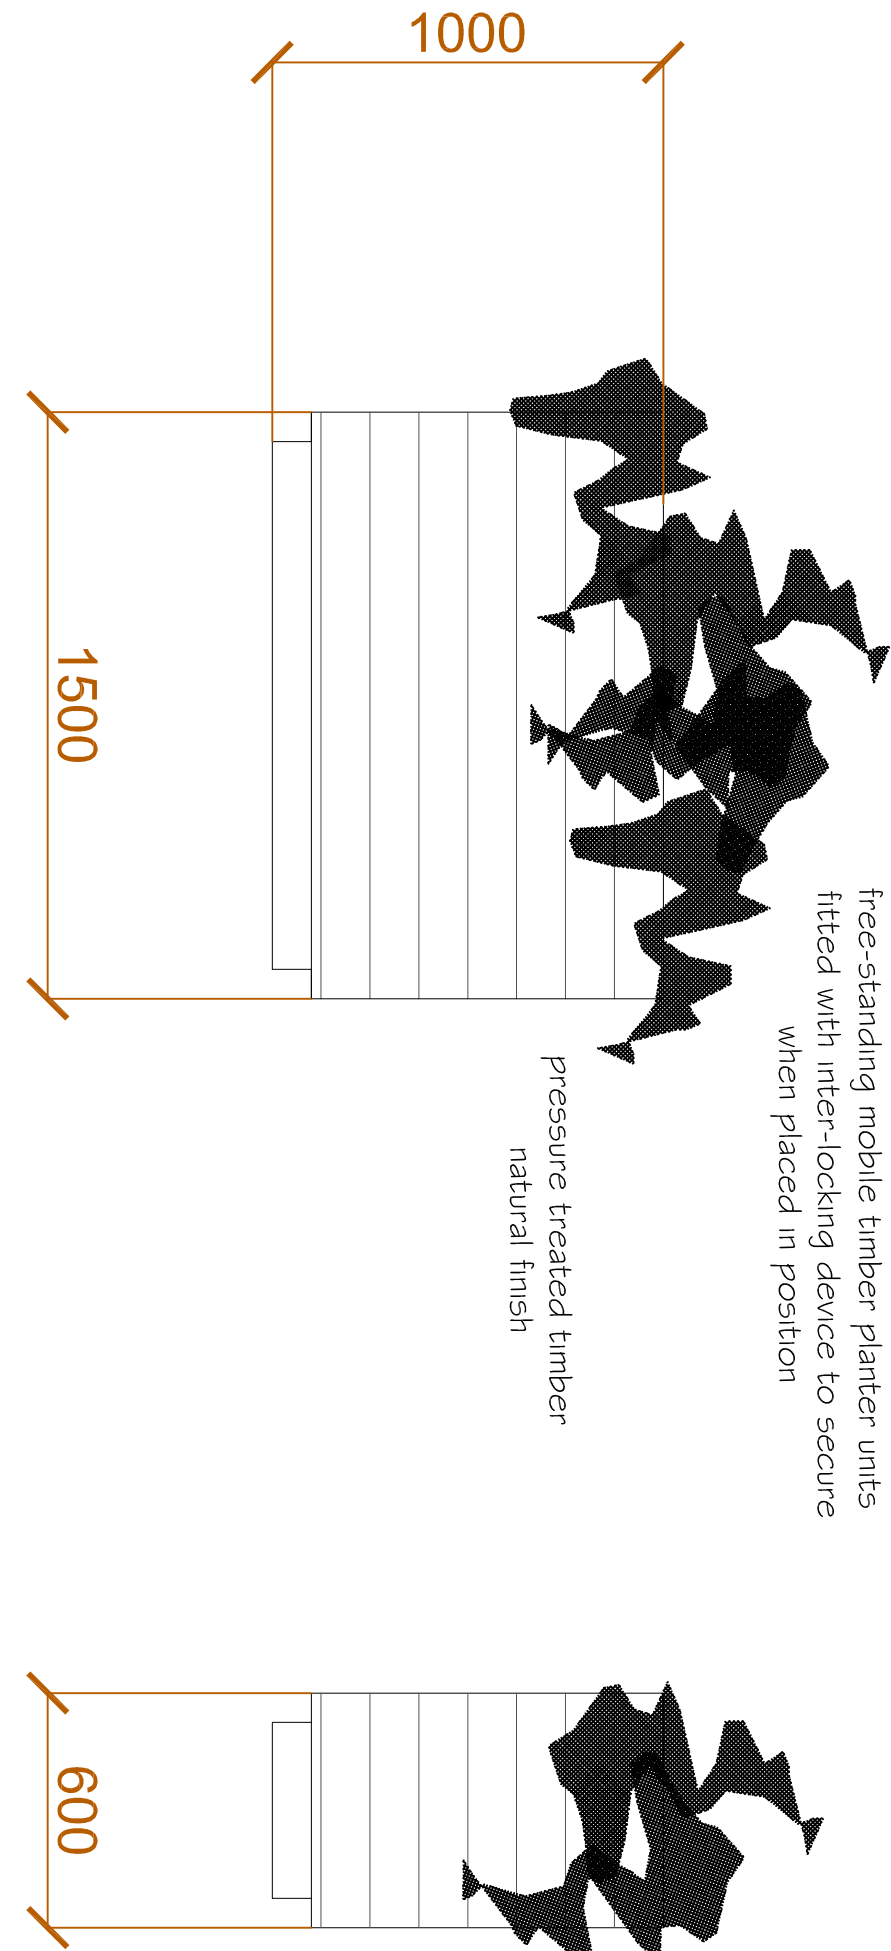

Free-standing mobile timber planter units

space between planters provided with timber gate
for means of escape purposes only

10700

proposed rear elevation

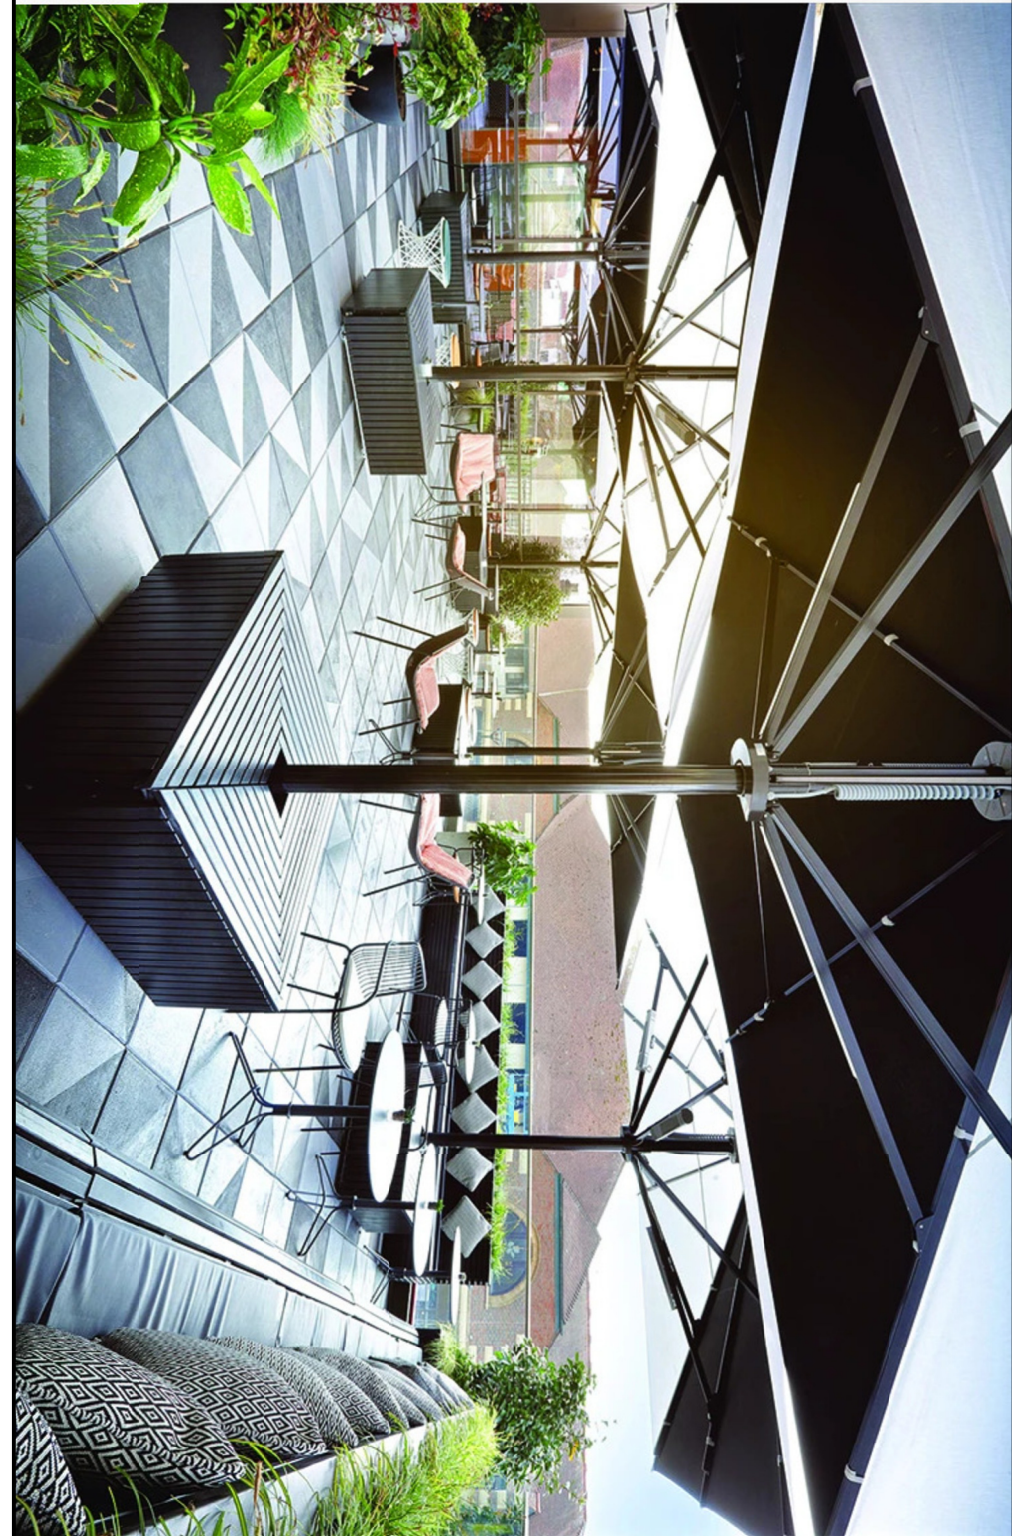

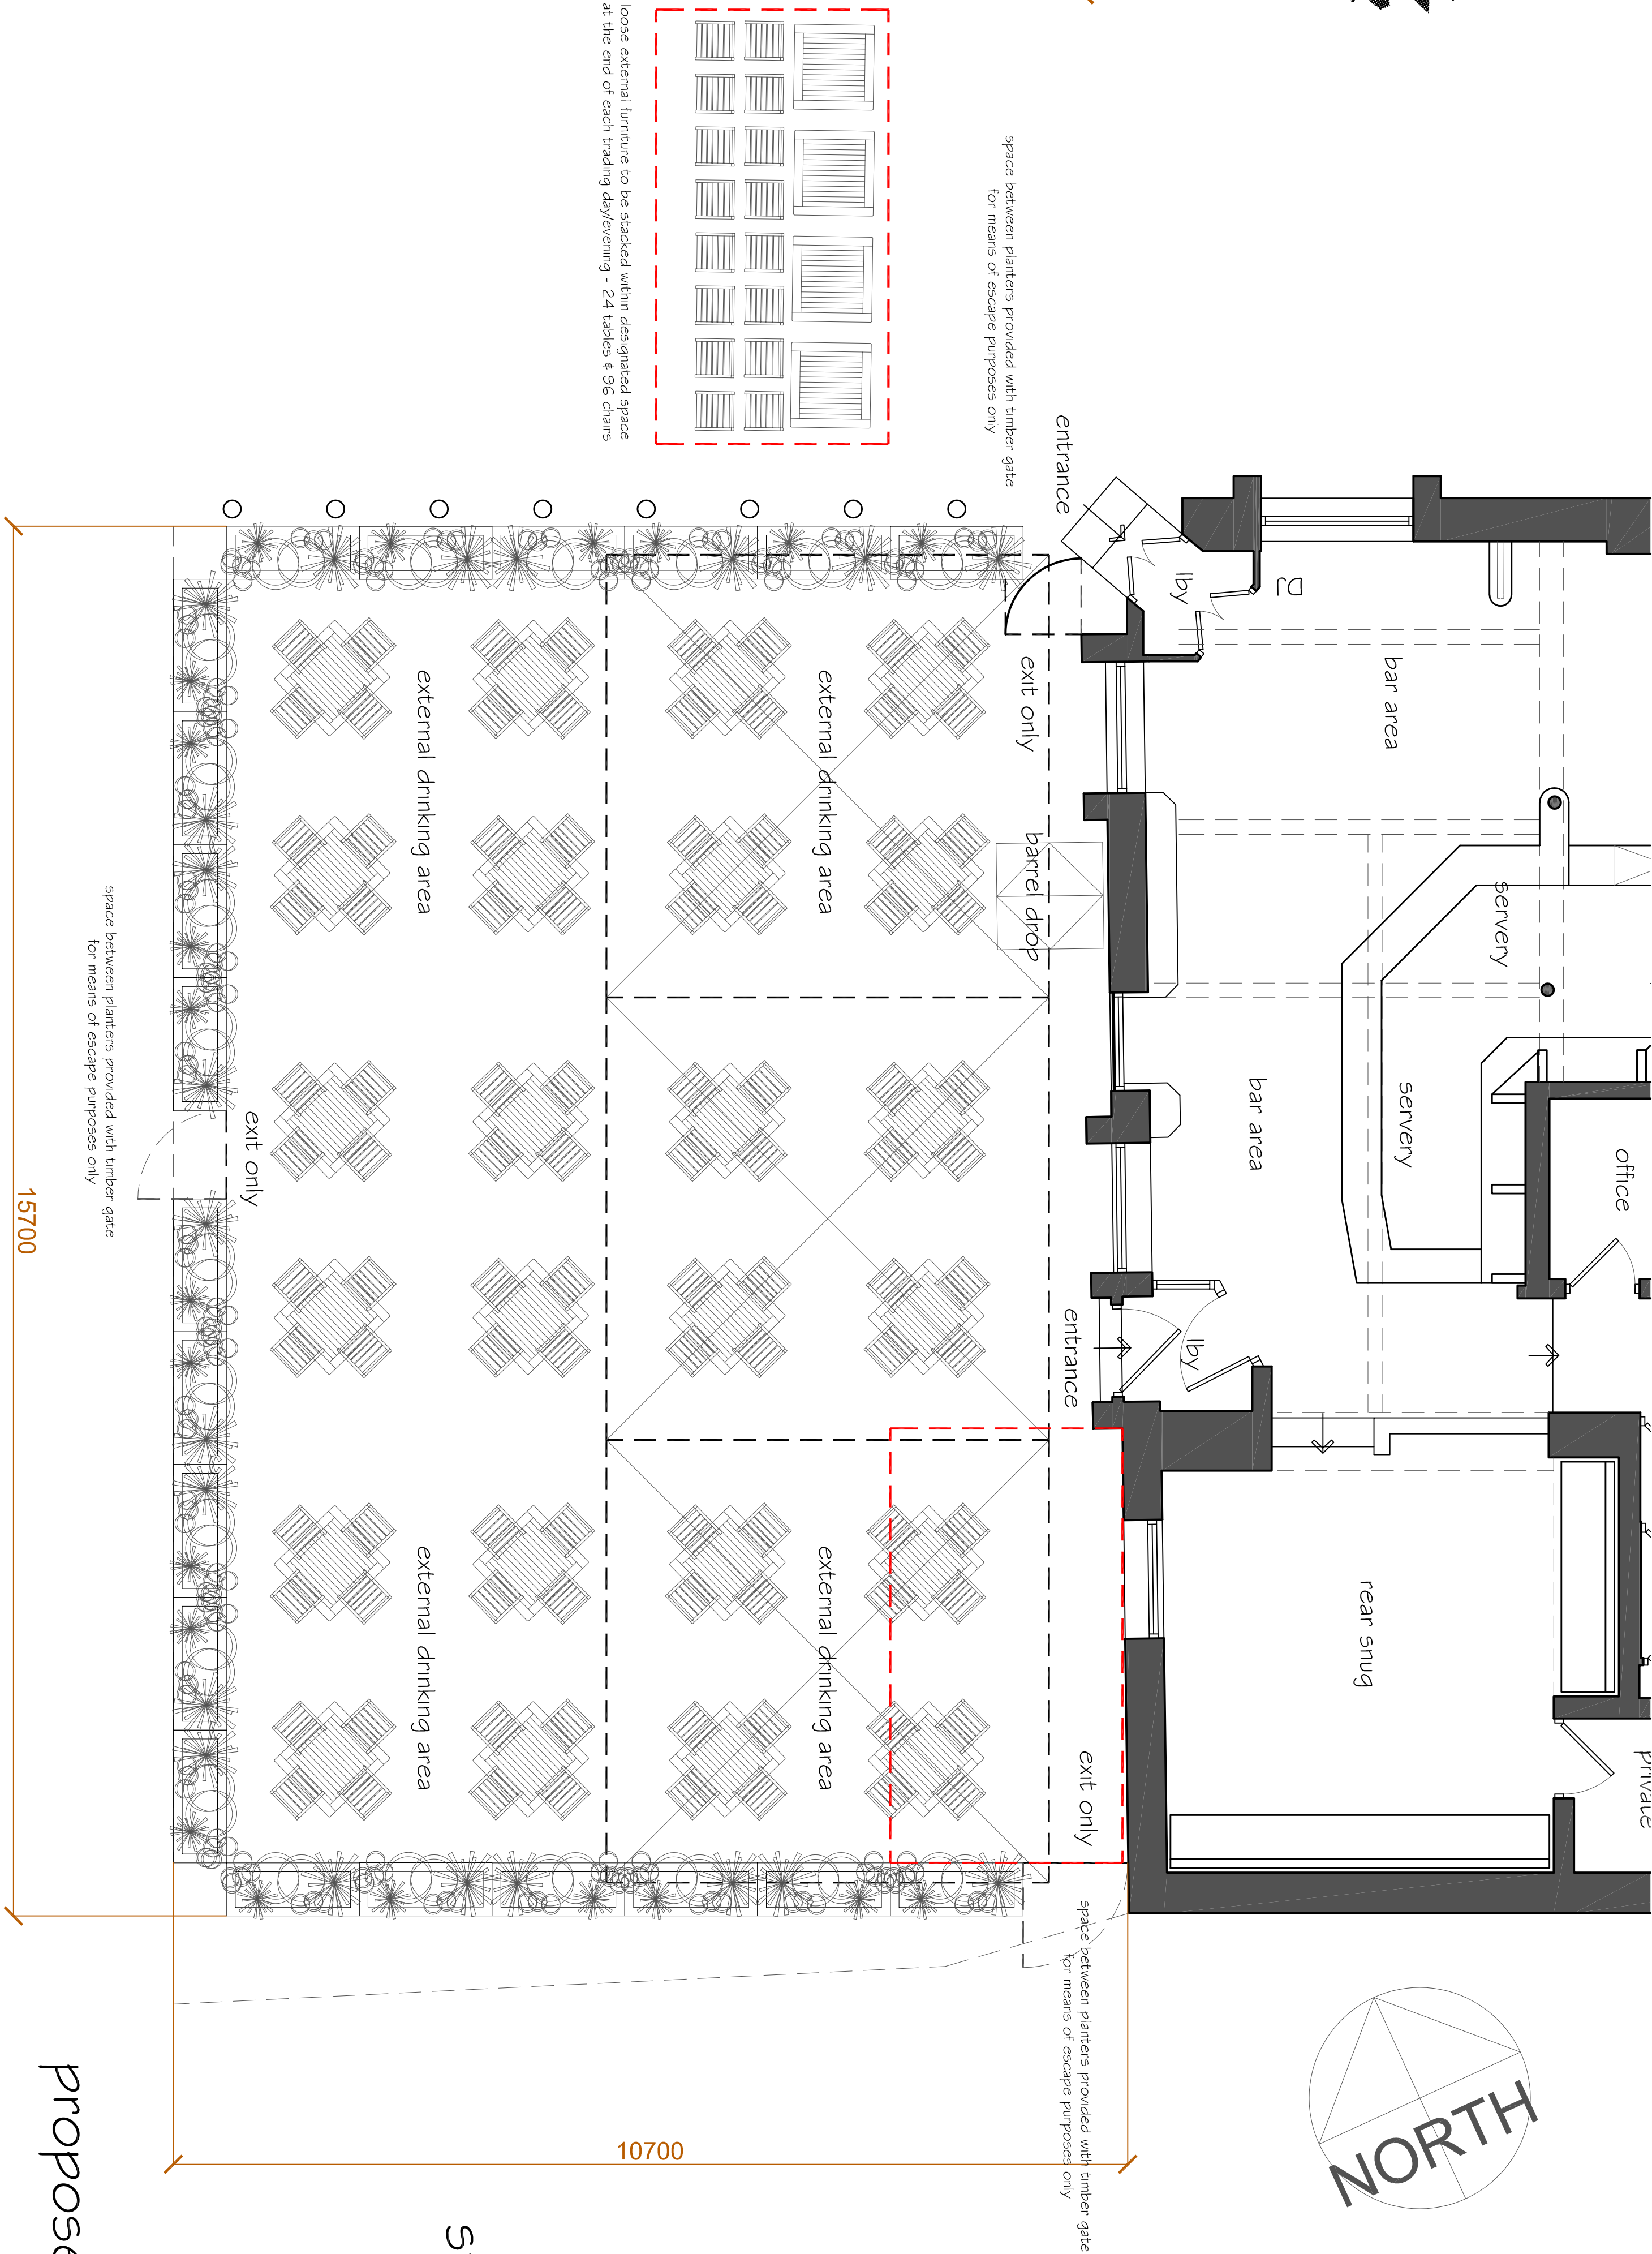

proposed front elevation (Liverpool Road)

details of mobile planter - 1 : 20

stock image of timber planter

stock image of parasol with covered base

proposed site plan

|                                                                                                                                           |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |  |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|--|
| DRDARCHITECTUREINTERIOR DESIGNcorporate • hospitality • leisure                                                        |  |  | revisionsA 17.02.2023 DHstock photo images added to drawingshowing style of timber planter and largeparasol with raised / covered base.also areas indicated on plan where loosetables & chairs can be secured & stacked |  |  |
| DRD Architectural & Interior Design LTDThe Studio   34 Lime Tree Avenue   RedfordL1 44B (0) 1300 768 763info@drd-design.co.uk |  |  | CLIENTCraft Union Pub Co                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |  |  |
| PROJECTThe White Lion43, Liverpool RoadManchesterM3 4 NQ                                                              |  |  | STATUSPLANNING                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |
| DRAWN BYDave Robinson                                                                                                             |  |  | DATE26/01/2023                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |
| SCALE1/50 @ A0                                                                                                                    |  |  | DRAWING No.1960.02                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |  |  |
|                                                                                                                                           |  |  | REV: A                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |  |  |